A LANDMARK YEAR FOR THE UN AND FOR THE COLLEGE

devising a more ciency. A more e to support Us sources, Information ces. A new Extension ices. A nextension ices. A new Extension ic 2015 has been the year of the historic adoption of the new Sustainable Development Agenda: Transforming our World. Innovation and transformation are indeed today's priorities for the United Nations.

In line with this spirit and to boost its potentials to act as a change agent for the entirety of the UN system, the College embarked upon a far-reaching process of transformation.

Two critical initiatives have been among the main drivers of our work in 2015: the creation of the Bonn-based Knowledge Centre for Sustainable Development (KCSD) and the creation of the UN Lab for Organizational Change and Knowledge (UNLOCK). Their conceptualization and implementation represent the centrepiece of the achievements of this year, while the College continued in its effort to consolidate and further expand its regular portfolio.

Finally, the College continued to invest in new technology-enhanced learning and mobile learning products resulting in a growing number of participants receiving virtual training. This investment has proven to be an effective means of reaching a larger portion of the UN staff at a lower cost, maintaining the College at the forefront of learning innovation. The year 2015 was an exciting and challenging time for us, and I have the privilege to present you a glimpse of it through our annual report.

Establishment

The UNSSC was established on 1 January 2002, by the United Nations General Assembly's Resolution A/RES/55/278.

Mission

To contribute to a more effective, results-oriented and agile United Nations through learning, training and knowledge dissemination.

Outreach

Every year, we offer approximately 100 learning events, benefiting over 8,000 UN staff on average.

Mandate

To serve as a system-wide knowledge management and learning institution, with a view to fostering a cohesive management culture across the United Nations system.

Vision:

To provide the skills and knowledge to empower the most valuable resource of the UN system: our people.

Headquarters

The UNSSC is based in Turin, Italy and, since 2016, it has opened the Centre for Sustainable Development in Bonn, Germany.

Staff Size

The UNSSC has 39 staff members, 69% directly engaged in learning and training activities.

What we offer

Residential courses on the UN campuses, e-learning opportunities, as well as "at the door" training in some 60 countries annually.

We are known for Helping the diverse staff of the UN system to learn together, share experiences, and formulate joint solutions to the challenges facing the UN.

our learning programmes are...

...UN-specific

We are part of the UN family, so we know what it means to work in the United Nations – be it in the field or at headquarters, in middleincome countries, in programmes or in operations, in entry-level or in management positions.

...closer than one thinks

We offer residential courses in state-of-the-art facilities on the UN Campuses in Turin, Italy and Bonn, Germany. We also deliver training in over 50 countries each year, thanks to our mobile team of trainers.

Our distance learning courses combine self-paced online learning with live sessions with the course instructor and participants from across the UN system worldwide. UN staff can learn how they want, when they want, and still benefit from an interactive experience.

...truly inter-agency

We bring together UN staff from across the system in a truly inter-agency spirit to learn from each other, exchange views on common issues, and build networks to continue learning beyond the classroom.

...relevant to the UN daily work

We blend external expertise with practical UN experience. Courses feature subject-matter experts and thought leaders from renowned academic institutions, think tanks, the private sector and civil society, as well as experienced UN practitioners.

...delivered directly at desk

...tailor-made for UN Organizations

We design and deliver customized learning programmes on-demand to meet the specific needs of organizations, departments, peace operations, or inter-agency groups.

OUR AREAS T EXPERTISE

The Staff College delivers openenrolment courses and learning events both face-to-face and at a distance in many areas which are crucial for UN staff. These include:

Leadership Development

Management Development

Peace & Security

Sustainable Development and Agenda 2030

Knowledge Management

The UNSSC Knowledge Centre for Sustainable Development (KCSD)

In 2015, the College inaugurated the Knowledge Centre for Sustainable Development in Bonn, which delivers on a comprehensive new set of offerings, aiming at building the capacity of UN staff on sustainable development and on the implementation of the 2030 Agenda. The Centre serves as a catalyst and convener of dialogue and knowledge sharing on sustainable development between UN staff and a diverse set of stakeholders from academia, the private sector and civil society.

The UN Lab for Organizational Change and Knowledge (UNLOCK)

The UNLOCK programme aims at enhancing the capacity of the UN system to manage change by increasing the understanding of, commitment to, and capacity of its staff to manage and lead change. UNLOCK carries out two types of interventions: advisory services and learning activities. Advisory services support UN entities' in implementing comprehensive organizational change processes. Learning interventions include both formal and informal learning activities, including training, workshops, coaching, communities of practice and self-directed learning.

The Secretary-General's Retreat

On 19 and 20 March 2015, the UN Secretary-General, Ban Ki-moon, held his sixth Retreat with senior officials in Turin, organized by the College. The Deputy Secretary-General and almost 70 UN senior advisors, comprising all Under-Secretaries- General and Assistant Secretaries-General including Heads of Funds and Programmes, attended the Retreat to actively debate the global challenges facing the UN.

Executive Master in Management of International Organizations (EMMIO)

In 2015 the College developed, together with Bocconi University and the International Training Centre of the ILO (ITC/ILO), an Executive Master in Management of International Organizations, focused on topics and requirements that are particularly relevant to the UN system. The EMMIO is considered as unique within the UN system, since, for the first time, participants have the opportunity to take specific courses developed by two UN learning institutions. EMMIO attracted 22 students, 19 UN staff from 11 Agencies and 16 duty stations.

New mobile learning apps launched

In June 2015 the College released through the iTunes Store the "UN Facilitator's Cookbook", its first mobile learning app (iOS). A second new mobile learning app "UNSSC PeerTalk" has also been released through the GooglePlay and iTunes stores.

TESTIMONIALS

UN Summer Academy edition 2015

"One of the strengths of this course is the quality and diversity of the participants, allowing for sharing of experience and networking... The overall experience was delightful, informative, and intellectually enriching."

UN Leadership Exchange

"It made me stop and think about my leadership and I learned a lot from others." "I found the Exchange to be enlightening, thought-provoking and engaging. I very much believe that it will contribute to my work."

Results-based Management for UN's Common Programming

"Thank you very much for the very productive time spent for our empowerment on the required knowledge. You are a great team".

UN Country Team Leadership Skills

"The course allows us to tap into the expertise of other colleagues in the field and to learn from their experience."

The critical approach to all the issues was crucial for the high quality of the course. The course is a very good basis for further reflection on the UN and on our proper role."
