THE BLUE line

Corporate Subscription for the International Trade Centre (ITC)

As ITC personnel, you now have access to the Blue Line, a global learning hub open to all UN staff for personalized and self-directed learning.

MODULES

The corporate Blue Line subscription gives you unlimited access to 40+ curated online modules on management, leadership, innovation and evaluation in the United Nations.

Through your account, you will be able to participate in online events, explore a growing collection of free learning tools and resources, and share your experience with other UN colleagues.

Blue Line makes it easy to stick to your learning goals throughout the year by enabling you to earn certificates at your own pace and track your progress with advanced analytics.

All Personnel

You are highly encouraged to use the Blue Line platform as a means to facilitate your personal development and the achievement of your objectives.

Managers and supervisors

In addition to your own objectives and learning paths, we invite you to encourage your staff and teams to pursue Blue Line courses to acquire new skills, knowledge and regular learning.

How to get started on the Blue Line

1. Register for the Blue Line with your UN email here: <https://www.unssc.org/activities/public-form?id=500218&key=>. Your platform credentials will then be sent to you via email.
2. Log in to your account on the platform here: <https://blueline.unssc.org/>
3. You will enter your personalized dashboard which you can customize with modules and learning tools. Click here to access the how-to guide.

How to complete the mandatory “Competency-Based Interview (CBI) for Panel Members” certification course

1. Search for “CBI” on the search bar on top of your dashboard.
2. Select the “Guide-Competency-Based Interview for Panel Members” first. This will provide you with important information on the course.
3. Proceed to the “Competency-Based Interview for Panel Members” module. Complete all lessons and mandatory activities. Upon completion of the module you will receive a certificate.

How to achieve the Extended e-Certificate on Leadership and Management

The CBI course counts towards the completion of the Extended E-Certificate on Leadership and Management, so don't miss out on the opportunity to earn this certificate by adding more modules to your learning plan.

1. Visit the module “Guide- Extended E-Certificate on Leadership and Management” to get an overview of the programme along with its objectives and completion requirements.
2. Complete a total of 25 modules, including the mandatory CBI course for ITC personnel and the “Introduction to the UN System Leadership Framework” (mandatory). You will earn a badge upon the completion of each module.
3. Once you have 25 module completion badges, you will be awarded the Extended E-Certificate on Leadership and Management.
