Post Title: Digital learning Intern
Duration: 6 months, starting in March 2019
Deadline for applications: 24 February 2019
Duty Station: UNSSC, Turin, Italy
Organizational unit: Knowledge Centre for Leadership and Management
Remuneration: 450€ per month

UNSSC provides a work environment that reflects the core values of the United Nations: integrity, professionalism and respect for diversity.

The United Nations System Staff College (UNSSC) with its headquarters in Turin, Italy, is the United Nations institution for system-wide knowledge management, learning and training for the staff of the United Nations system. The College is expected to play a pivotal role in contributing to UN reform, the development of a common culture based on effectiveness, expertise and continuous learning through the development, co-ordination and provision of cross-cutting learning programmes which impact on all agencies and staff.

1. ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT:
The Knowledge Centre for Leadership and Management (KCLM) is one of the Programme Teams in the UNSSC, seeking to offer UN system organizations and staff innovative and cost-effective solutions to support staff development and increase learning, management, leadership and communication competencies, and organizational capabilities. To this end, KCLM focuses on the application of technology and innovation to learning and knowledge management, fosters peer learning and offers UN personnel a broad portfolio of courses and on-demand services on core skills and management competencies.

2. DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES:
UNSSC’s KCLM is seeking an intern to join the dynamic team that designs, develops, implements and evaluates leadership and management training programmes for UN middle and senior managers. These programmes often consist of both online and face-to-face components.

The selected intern will apply her/his skills in instructional design and educational technology, and gain understanding of the UN work and the development of learning programmes for the UN audience. The incumbent will report to the Learning Portfolio Manager and contribute to the design, development and coordination of these learning programmes.

Specifically, the intern will be responsible for, but not limited to, the following:

1. Participate in the design of digital products;
2. Assist resource persons on how to use technology and better conduct online courses;
3. Publish and update content on UNSSC learning platform (Moodle);
4. Explore and test new tools to extend the features of Moodle;
5. Collect and analyse learning analytics, compile and visualize data on participants’ activities and feedback;
6. Produce video and multimedia content for marketing and learning purposes;
7. Organize webinars for participants while coordinating with professors and content experts;
8. Assist with administrative tasks as required;
9. Any other duties as assigned by the supervisor.

3. REQUIRED SKILLS:

Education:
Applicants can be considered if they meet one of the following:
- Are enrolled in a Master's or in a Ph.D. programme; or
- Are enrolled in the final year of a Bachelor’s programme; or
- Are within one year after graduation from a Bachelor's, Master's or Ph.D. programme.
in instructional design, educational technology, adult education, communication, data visualization, media production or other related areas from an accredited college or university.

Experience:
Previous work experience is not required. Previous experience in Moodle or other LMS as well as authoring tools (e.g. Articulate Storyline, Camtasia, Adobe Captivate, etc.) is an asset.
Portfolio or evidence of skills is highly desirable.

Language competencies:
Fluency (written and oral) in English. Fluency in another UN official language is an asset.

Computer skills:
Excellent computer skills in the Microsoft Office suite. Familiarity with online learning and social media tools. Video editing experience is an asset.

Other skills and competencies:
Ability to work effectively as part of a team.
High motivation, with a desire to learn and grow professionally.
Take initiatives and follow through a project independently.
Ability to work in a multicultural, multi-ethnic environment and to maintain effective working relations with people of different national and cultural backgrounds.

4. APPLICATION PROCEDURE:
Eligible candidates interested in doing an internship at the United Nations System Staff College must submit in English:
- An up-to-date curriculum vitae (resume);
- A motivation letter;
- For applicants who are currently enrolled in a degree programme, an endorsement from their University or Sponsoring Institution is required;
- A portfolio of previous work achievements related to your major field would be highly desirable, though not required. (e.g. video production samples, media coverage of projects, papers etc)

Applications should be submitted by e-mail to: recruitment@unssc.org or by fax: (0039) 011 65359 02.
